Marcelle Lee Smartt was born January 2, 1972 in Flint, Michigan to the late Esley and Sarah Smartt. He was educated in the Flint Public School system. Marcelle grew up attending Vernon Chapel AME Church. However, it was in his later years that he fully accepted Christ as the head of his life. We rejoice in knowing he had a personal relationship with God. Marcelle was known as the class clown both in school and socially. He could always be counted on to bring laughter to everyone. Marcelle loved to sing and was part of a singing group made up of his dearest friends. He was an avid Pistons fan and enjoyed attending and watching the Detroit Pistons games with his son and friends. Marcelle Lee Smartt leaves to cherish his memory: his only son, Marcelle Smartt, Jr.; fiancée, Sandra Cochran; sisters, Jacqueline Gass of Zion, IL and Demetra Allen of Nashville, TN; brothers, Jerome Wilson and Patrick Smartt; two aunts, Marion Collins, all of Flint, MI and Susannah Smartt of Nashville, TN; six nieces; six nephews; a host of other loving relatives and dear friends including Charles Brown and Gerald Brown Marcelle was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Esley Leroy and Sarah Smartt; paternal grandparents, Frank Smartt and Betty L. Smartt-Allison; maternal grandparents, Robert and Louise Wilson; and numerous great-nieces and nephews; a host of cousins; and close friend, Herbert Brown. The family would also like to express their thanks to Flint Emergency Services for their efforts to save Marcelle.
