“ Barbara Acklin's 'Love makes a Woman'

Is the song that I remember Aunt Marcia singing. The way she use to sing it reflects her spirit in my mind and heart. Knowing that she is resting in peace will bring closure and calm to our family.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Marcia at the Mott Foundation in the late 70s and found that we knew members of each other's family, as well as sharing the same high school alma mater: Flint Northern High School. I will remember Marcia as having a kind and helpful spirit, always having time for a chat to catch up with life's ups and downs, and then parting with encourgaing words for each other of love, faith, and perseverance. Marcia will be missed, but not forgotten. To her family, please be encouraged, love one another, and hold to God's unchanging hands. Sincerely, Teri Chambry.

“ I had the pleasure of chatting with Marcia when she worked at the Mott Foundation. She was always upbeat and positive. Her smile and happy attitude would always send me home in a good mood. Her love of God and His hand on our paths kept her moving forward. I'm sorry she has left this place, but I know she is comfortable at home with Him for eternity.
