“ Margaret, I was really hoping it wasn't you who went to be with the Lord. But because God always knows best, I pray that you are now "resting in peace." I had nothing but fun and laughter with you during our days of working at the nursing home called Chateau Gardens. You could make everyone laugh especially when their day wasn't going that great. I will cherish the fun and wonderful memories I have of you always! Praying for your family, extended family and all of the friends you have left behind. Deborah Milling!
