“ I met Margaret 30 years ago at H&R Block and no matter what happened in her life and no matter where she moved to she always found me. We would sit and talk for as long as we could. Her love for GOD, her family and people in general was a blessing to all who met her. If could write a book about her the title would be "LOVE". I will miss her so much.RIP

“ To the Wesley family. You have my sincere condolences. My sister Sharon will forever be missed by the Drummer Family. There was nothing she would not do for us. This is a hard one for me. We all came from the same city (Excelsior W Va). This is like losing a part of my heart. Rest well in the Lord Sis. Her last words to me was "Di never let go of Gods hand" I love you Sis.

“ My sincerest condolences and prayers to the family of Sharon. Sharon was one of the nicest people on the earth. Beautiful inside and out. We go back to our days together at Robinson’s House of Beauty on Carpenter Rd. She and her sister Romance and daughters were fixtures in the Shop. One big family we were. GOD is an ever present help.
