

Missionary Marguerite Ellanor Carlton

December 29, 1911 - July 20, 2017

CARLTON, Mrs. Marguerite E. - Age 105, passed away Thursday, July 20, 2017 at her residence.

Public Viewing 12:00 PM-8:00 PM Thursday, July 27, 2017 from the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, 906 W. Flint Park Blvd. Interment Sunset Hills Cemetery, G-4413 Flushing Rd.

Missionary Marguerite Ellanor Carlton was born December 29, 1911 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, the daughter of Harvey and Elizabeth Jones. At an early age she moved to Chicago, Illinois where she attended public schools. Later, she moved to Flint, Michigan where she resided until her passing. While in Flint, she met Frazier P. Carlton.

Frazier Plaz Carlton joined Marguerite Ellanor Jones in Holy Matrimony on January 23, 1937. They shared a deep love for 71 years until death parted them on September 11, 2008. Their marriage was a testament of true love, devotion and unfailing commitment. Missionary Carlton committed her life to Christ on May 28, 1947. She developed a vibrant, genuine relationship with Christ and embraced a new and living way. Her husband, Bishop Carlton, also committed his life to Christ as he witnessed the profoundly beautiful miracle of love and grace in her.

In 1957, on Easter Sunday, Bishop Frazier P. Carlton and Missionary Marguerite E. Carlton founded Christ Assembly Full Gospel Tabernacle where they faithfully served as pastor and teacher for 51 years. She served in various roles as Pastor's Wife, Teacher, Counselor, Choir Director and Musician. In 1971, she initiated the writing of all Sunday School Literature for the church. She also organized a local Women's Study Guild where women were instructed and counseled in home management, natural childbirth, marriage and motherhood - all using the Bible as a focal point. Women were also mentored in personal development and spiritual growth.

Missionary Carlton authored an insightful book, published by Pageant-Poseidon Press Ltd. (NY), titled, "Dig Into the Deep and Become Richer". The book is a fascinating study of how man, in his eternal quest for peace and happiness, has really created the very problems our society is striving to solve.

Missionary Carlton was a godly lady of refinement, dignity and poise. She had the heart of a servant and the caring, nurturing spirit of a mother. She led by precept and example and used her keen spiritual insight to teach a more perfect way.

On February 2, 1964 she stated, "I want to live saved in the world today, so that this world will be a better place because I have lived in it." She was indeed a godly influence and a moral compass pointing AND living in the right direction, in ever widening circles of influence.

Missionary Carlton was the true embodiment of a virtuous woman who "opened her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue was the law of kindness." As an elect lady, she knew the truth, loved the truth and walked in the truth. Proverbs 31 declares, "Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all."

Missionary Marguerite Ellanor Carlton was preceded in death by her devoted husband of 71 years, Bishop Frazier Plaz Carlton and her parents, Harvey and Elizabeth Jones.

The Carlton family would like to express special thanks to the Christ Assembly Church family, including caregivers, Carl Tedford, Renetta Scott, Evelyn Johnson, Ollie Van Buren, Pauline Tedford, and special encourager, Lessie Tedford for their faithful and tender care.

Also sincere thanks to Dr. Eustace, Dr. Christy, Heart to Heart Hospice, Right At Home and Patricia Bohannon for their dedicated and compassionate service.
