“ When my Mother Mary Toles was buried, Mrs. Marguerite Vaughn, became my mother; when my only sister was buried she became my sister; when my friend was buried she became my friend and all the time is my cousin and the Ananise Toles Matriarch. We shared flowers, love, laughter, and tears together. When my feet touch down in Flint she was the first to see our face. The world has lost a jewel that cannot be replaced. She was a master teacher of life and love. She is always in our heart and send the angels of God to encircle their arms of strength and love around her children with our prayers of peace. Humbly submitted Missionary Mary Times Brice, cousin from Muskogee Ok.
