“ My mother was in Durand Senior Care and Rehab center with Mariah, I recently was able to finally go visit my mom (due to covid restrictions) and I was looking for Mariah. She was always so sweet and would ask me if I had any candy. She must of loved candy. I'm so so sad she's passed, I loved to see her when visiting my mom. My deepest condolences.

“ *Mariah Lou,
That is how my mother, your first cousin, referred to you. You brought joy and laughs to the family and we all knew that candy was the way to your heart. We were all blessed to be a part of your life. After close to a century here on this earth you have transitioned to Eternal Life. There is no doubt that God has welcomed you with Open Arms with a “Well Done, My Good and Faithful Servant Welcome”.*

“ Ms. Harris was intentional in sharing her Christian journey. She lived a long life and loved her large extended family. She was a lover of all things sweet. In our humanness we sorely grieve for the loss of our loved ones. Death comes like a thief in the night, and we are never prepared for it. As Christians, we leave life’s results to God.

Rest in Peace Mariah! Rethon E. Sykes
