“Cousin Bay Bay I'm just Thanking God for blessing me to have known you as one of my fun loving cousins! Your warm infectious smile and loving personality with that crazy laugh will truly be missed. I will forever fondly remember the good times we had at family gatherings, outings with Laine and Greg, our talks & giggling as usual about something! But the God we serve makes no mistakes and saw fit to call his daughter home. For we know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. So rest on in peace my cousin for there will be no more pain and sorrow. For Sorrow is not forever but love is and this rose is symbolic of the never ending love I'll always have in my heart for you!”

“ My dearest Bay Bay, I can't believe I will never hear that "always upbeat" voice of yours. No matter what was going on health wise, you could never tell by talking on the phone with you. I will always remember spending nights at your house when we were growing up. We were and still are like sisters. My heart aches for my cousin. You told me you were coming to my birthday party in Las Vegas on Dec 7th, so if this was the only way you could get there, I'm sure you made it. I wil always, always love and miss you Bay Bay.

“ Dear Brown Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next.(2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.

“ Words cannot express how I feel about my friend, and classmate, Marietta. She was loved by all that came to know her. She will be missed, but never forgotten. For she will always hold a special place in the Northwestern's Class of 73's Heart. We shared wonderful times together and she always had a kind word and she could make you smile and laugh. I am praying GOD's Strengthen and Love on the entire Brown family during this time of bereavement. ”
