“ I remember Marion as a kid growing up with my parent n their siblings . She was more like family to us off Bent drive. As many has stated before me her laugh I will truly miss along with the jokes. It was truly a pleasure having the opportunity to be your nurse..

“ She was a younger cousin and I will miss her and all her silliness. She was a good person and I’m sure she will missed by all who knew her especially “The Holloway call”. I’ m happy she is no longer in pain and is in the best place with no more sickness or pain. She will be greeted by “The Owl” her loving nickname for her Dad and her Mom. I’m sending my condolences, my thoughts, and my prayers to my family and her friends. She is Resting in Peace. Love you Marion and will always remember you. Love, your big Cousin, Ricky.

“ To the Holloway Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
