“ Dear Henderson Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. The “Hearer of prayer” promises to give holy spirit to those who sincerely ask for it at Psalms 65:2. Some find it extremely soothing to rely on prayer and friends through this most difficult transition, and perhaps this may aid in lifting some of your sorrow.(Phillipians4:6) Be assured,death will soon be “swallowed up forever” and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again.(Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace.(Phillipians4:7)

“ Mark we worked together, played together, laughed together and we made work fun. Guy after all those years of work we were blessed by Chinara to have Jerzi together your neice and my great grand daughter. You left quick without a warning but it is not surprising because you always did it your way with a bang. I truly send my regard to the Henderson family for I know you will be sadly missed because you kept the life in living. you will be missed but your spirit will always highlight your family for the memories will never die.

“ My deepest sympathy to my cousin's Kevin; Tammie, Niecy; John; Chinara; Brittany; Vicky and Deborah. No words can express the sadness I feel at this time of sadness. I spoke with Mark when he was in hospital and out of hospital, like my sister Regina said, he was more concerned about everybody else. He is home with the rest of the family with the Father. Don't tell him "bye," only tell him see you later Mark. Love you Cousins!

“The Leaf”

*A gentle breeze shook a leaf from the tree.....
No one noticed... just you and me.
The leaf danced It swayed... a child again,
And as the breeze so gently, lifted it away,
It paused for a moment as if wondering.... “Should I stay?”
But continued its journey anyway.*

*The leaf floated higher and higher toward the Light in the sky
And when I saw the clouds open,
I thought I heard familiar voices from the same old tree...
Or was that the sound of angelic wings?*

*It doesn't matter so much that the breeze took the leaf away,
Only that, that part of our tree was taken
Gone “Home” to stay.
Our family will miss that part of our tree,
But, our family “back home” is rejoicing I know,
Because our loved one has “come home” to stay.*

*A child again.....
No suffering, no sadness, no more pain nor hurt,
He has gone home to the Father, gone away from this earth.*

*So every time you hear or feel a slight breeze,
Or see the movement of the leaves.....
Remember.....*

The leaves that have gone "Home" to our Heavenly family tree.

“ The Lord is my refuge and my strength. In this time of distress look to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. In the time of trouble The Lord shall hide me in his pavilion. Know this I am praying with you and for you. Mark has told his story, we are stilling telling ours. Let our story be one of confidence in Jesus Christ.

“ I'm going to miss my cousin Mark, my oldest Brother Wendell's twin. I talked to you two weeks ago when you were in the hospital and you said, " I'm Ok Cuz, don't worry bout me, I'm alright!" and you started asking about everybody else. That was just the way you were, those of us who were close to you knew that you were the most unselfish person alive and you really didn't want anyone to worry for real.

I can remember like it was yesterday when you and Kevin were ice cream boys....I'll just say we got a lot of ice cream back then.

You always like Kiata said, "kept it real", but your love for family really ran deep. I will never forget the talk we had about how important family is after my Mom died. You got in my stuff about not forgiving and you told me that the Lord wouldn't want family to act like that. When we had this conversation I had a heart change and I realized that you knew Jesus in a very special way!

I love you Cuz, and will really miss you!! Vicky, Kevin, Tammy, and Niecy, I love you all and will be there for you....very sad, however absent from this body is to be in the presence of the Lord. Mark see you on the other side!

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3-4, John 5:28,29). Again I am extending my sincere condolences to the family.
