“ To the Davis Family,

In life there are times when we must separate from a loved one in our Life, it's never an easy transition even when we understand the Master's Plan. The Broach Family will keep you in our prayers and thoughts. May God continue to watch and bless you and your family during this time of bereavement.

“ Dear Davis Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At times like these we can turn to our heavenly father Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) for comfort. This scripture is found at 2 Corinthians 1:3&4, it says he is the "God of comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation". The bible also speaks of a time in the near future when death will be a thing of the past and this is found at Isaiah 25:8 where it says, "he will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces". We can trust in God's promises for the future. Another encouraging scripture is found at John 5:28, here Jesus says, "do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". I sincerely hope these words will bring you comfort.
