“ Tasha my sympathies and prayers go out to you and your family. I can't imagine loosing a child but I lost my mother a few months ago so I know the pain of loosing someone so dear to your heart. My sons and your son played with Flint Affiliation together and they also extend their deepest sympathy. I can't say that the pain will go away because that would not be true. What I can say is that with faith and time, God somehow finds a way to give us the strength to carry on. You and Marquan will meet again. Each day you and your son will meet in that special meeting spot, your heart. When you feel a slight breeze and a sudden chill know that it's your baby. There will be times when a slight smell will strike a profound memory, know too that it's God reassuring you that he has Marquan with him. I will keep you, your husband, daughter and your mother along with the rest of your family forever in my prayers. May God Bless.
Love,
Karen & Tamika

“ Tasha, I am so sorry for the loss of my baby Marquan. He and Devere were very close earlier in their childhood. Those two were halarious together, we both know that he had a crush on Devere's big sister Dene at the time. He had a voice that I could not wait until he reach puberty, I would tease him and say boy your voice is so scratchy, he would just laugh. He was an old man in disguise. Your father was crazy about his little man. You did a great job with him. I will continue to pray for you Jeff, and Matt. My prayers are with you. Love your sis Dahl and Marquan you will be missed. I am just a phone call away. No matter what time it is.
