“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ Meeks Family, My prayers are with you during this difficult time. Losing someone so young is heartbreaking. He was just beginning to live. We are living in hard times. Think of the joyful times you shared together and those cherish memories. I hope you find comfort in Gods Word at Re. 21:4-And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. This is a promise from Our Heavenly Father so it will happen in the very near future. Thinking of you.

“ Just got a chance to see what a beautiful FLOWER heaven has added to the GARDEN where they never grow old. My dear cousin we never had the chance to met and greet but family is all we got, you are my (our) family and in our own way we will miss you also. Save a spot up there for us. You will be welcomed by a large heavenly family. Rest Marquis and know that we love you also.

“ Words can't explain how much pain and hurt I'm in. It don't seem real and I'm not ready to say my goodbyes. Everytime we talked you made sure I was good and kept me in check. You fought me 'til end through thick and thin you always held me down. But now that your gone who else gon love me like my brother did, who else gon comfort me like you did. Who else gon continue to show me the real like you did. Going to go get gas at the gas station on saginaw street aint the same no more. To not hear you yelling "Keya.!", or to see your smile, to hear your laugh, or even to sit and talk to you at the pump, it hurts. He took my brother, my heart. You and I may have not been blood but Quise you treated me like one, you held me down and held me in your arms when I had nobody else. You called me day and night made sure everything was going good. I don't know whether I should be mad or sad, my heart so confused. It ain't hit me yet but best believe when it do its gon hit me hard. I aint slept right since I found out you left me. I just want my brother to wake up and come back to me. To hold me in my arms and tell me you aint never gon leave me cold out here. Even though your physically gone, your spirit, love, and care will forever reside with me. Im so lost and confused with so much anger all I can do is pray, I know you probably looking at me like Keya its gone be okay, but why you though bro.? You always said you was gone leave this city and go somewhere safe. You safe now my baby, you in the best hands there is. You moved next door and make sure you save me a seat upstairs. The lord got you now. I'll see you at the crossroads. I love you Marquis. Watch over me.
