“ My prayers and condolences to Marsha’s family. She was one of my best friends in junior and high schools. Our greatest connection was being musicians. Marsha was excellent at playing the cello, oboe, bassoon, flute/piccolo and even the bells in marching band! I loved Marsha for her candor, wit, humor and generosity. I’ll cherish all the wonderful years we shared through indelible memories! Jeri Sanders, Violinist

“ Doug and myself, Cheryl, would like to extend our deepest sympathy in the homegoing and celebration of Life. Thank you God for allowing us to be a part of your family, Wilbert and Mrs. Spottsville. Even though Marsha didn't join the Masonic organization, you and Doug were classmates receiving your 33°. Our joint ball in 2001 was so much enjoyable because of your presence. God truly made you a gift of love ❤️. We'll miss your smiling face and your helping attributes. God has said well done my true and faithful servant. Wilbert rejoice in knowing that she is a child of God. May God heal your body and soul we pray. Thank you for loving us and we will Cherish all you've done with us. See you later.

“ To the Spottsville and Jackson family, my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one, Marsha. She was the first new friend I made at the beginning of our Jr High School experience. As the years went on, we lost touch, but I often thought of her. She was very sweet and kind. And may I add, very smart. She was a good friend. I'm heartbroken. May "the God who gives peace be with all of you." Sending love and prayers.

“ To the Entire Jackson Family, Marsha and I had been exchanging texts up until Friday evening and the last text I received from Marsha was “We can’t do anything but praise God. God has brought us through too much and we have had to do nothing but continue to walk by faith and not sight” 🙏🙏 for your prayers and concerns. I in turn text her Amen. Everyday there is a reason to praise Him. So let’s take Marsha’s advice and continue to walk by faith and not sight in Jesus’ Name. 🙏

“ To Wilbert, Michael, and Estelle although this may have be sudden, God made no mistake.
For to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I was glad to have had the opportunity to pray and fellowship with Marsha and Wilbert at Ascension. Allow the Peace of God to rule and abide in and through your hearts in the days ahead for He will never leave nor forsake you!
