“ To Aunt Bulah, Cousin Donald and family. I will always remember Uncle Marvin as "Uncle Tickle Bug" Whenever I visited, Uncle Marvin would always ask did I have tickle bugs. If I said no...he would say, "let me see." And he would tickle me until I laughed hysterically. Our last conversation...Tickle bugs, I need you to bring tickle bugs out of surgery and he said, I'm gonna try, and he did. But God had a plan way before I knew Uncle Marvin as Uncle Tickle Bug. He preceded us and I look forward to seeing his gentle spirit again in heaven. Much love, your niece Janice Grant Pierce 🙏🙏🙏

“ To Aunt Bulah, Donald and the rest of the Grant family, I send my heartfelt condolences to you today and the days ahead. Our Uncle Marvin was a quiet, humble man of God. He LOVED his family and his smile always brightened a room. I will always remember the love he had for all of his nieces and nephews. May God continue to pour His love in us all as we celebrate the Home going of a remarkable husband, father, grandfather, uncle , and friend!

“ Uncle Marvin was a quiet spirit and a gentle soul. His soft-spoken voice was reminiscent of my father Samuel who was his older brother. As he is the last of the “original” Grant brothers, the baton is now officially passed on to us Donald, Ricky, George, Joseph, Harold, Larry and Dennis
Thank you Uncle Marvin for how lived and how you loved. Our heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to Aunt Bulah, Donald and the grands. We remain a family of faith and love 🙏

“ *Aunt Bulan and Cousin Donald,
As we have said “goodbye” to Sam, Husband and Father in recent days here in Raleigh, we yet mourn for our Uncle Marvin there. God is so much bigger than all of this, and He alone can and will turn our mourning into peaceful and sweet remembrance of them both. We take solace that weeping endures for a night, but real and lasting joy comes in the morning, and even during the night He is right beside us to comfort and keep us. Know that you are loved and thinking of you all.*
