“ As we send our love and condolences to you, I am reminded of the special love between mother and daughter as she came down for her special hair care appointments — which was so beautiful to watch over the years. The laughter and commitment to the family is a light to the world. Be comforted in knowing that love is a gift that never dies from within the heart, and also in knowing that God will surely keep you and cover you all during this time. May angels of comfort rest upon you.

“ Mary and I were friends for 43 years and I will miss her so much. We had the type of friendship where no matter how long it would be between times we would see one another, we just picked up from that point. She was God's angel on this earth and as she would always say "it's going to be okay" May the angels welcome you to paradise and may you see the face of the Lord. Rest easy, my friend. I send my condolences, hugs and prayers to her family during this most difficult time. God bless...
