“ I will never forget Mary. We played volleyball for over 10 years together. She and I spent time not only playing v-ball, we shared conversations of laughter and about our family. I am so sad about her no longer being here with her family who dearly loved her, but she is now with the Lord and she is happy to be home with our Lord Christ Jesus.

“ *Mary I will always remember you. My memory of your laughter and jokes we would laugh about together. Loved playing volleyball with you; you were the best!
I shall see you again...when the saints are at home in heaven. Love,
San*
