“ IT deeply saddens my heart, hearing the passing of Mrs. Mary James. My condolences goes out to the family ,friends,and all who she touched over the the years. Mrs. James was like a grandmother to me,living up the street from her as neighbors on Holbrook st. She was like a spiritual guardian angel for me,and always reminded me to keep God first in all my endeavors.She allowed me to have a job as a teenager in her restaurant,and allowed me to drive her cars when i didn't even have drivers license,she always made me feel special. i could talk to her about any thing,and when i did come to her ,she would always ask whats wrong,and before i knew it she would say lets hold hands and take it to God, i knew then every thing would be alright. my angel you have your wings now,from labor to reward fly high,you will be for ever in our hearts..

“ As a kid I was so excited when our big sister came home to visit, our mother was happy we all just so happy to see her and get those big hugs she would give us, all of our lives were touch by Mae and life will not be the same without her and I know we all must leave this life one day we were just not ready to see her go, but I thank the good Lord above for allowing us to have you as long as we did and I'm so thankful she wanted to come to Texas and see her siblings last year and leave us with such precious memories. I love you my sister Rest In Peace
