“ Praying for the Family in the passing of this beautiful and dear Woman of God who was so admired by many for her acts of kindness and her magnetic personality. I called her and my Mom tag team partners from Pine Bluff, Arkansas because they both loved to create and give to others. She will be missed by so many but know that God has a place for her in glory reserved for the benevolent ones that served his people. Rest well and tell my Mom hello for us - The Jones Family.

“ I can't even begin to tell the memories that I have about our long, loving relationship, we go back to when she and her family moved here from Chicago. If the book of knowledge had a name it would be Mary V. Johnson, there is nothing that she could not figure out or point you in the right direction to find the answer. Rest in His Loving Arms, MY Friend!
