Mrs. Mary Louise Lynn graced this world on June 27, 1931 in Jackson, Tennessee, the daughter of Alonzie Adams and Maxine Adtkins. Mary was a member of New Jerusalem Full Gospel Baptist Church where she was a Choir Member and sang with the Inspirational Voices of New Jerusalem (IV's). Mary loved the Lord and faithfully everyday read the Daily Bread and the Bible. Louise was employed at the YMCA for 30years as Front Desk Clerk until she retired. She had the most infectious smile and loving hugs to all those that came in her presence. Louise enjoyed arts and crafts, working Crossword Puzzles and lots of game shows. She liked scrolling through Facebook, but would not make comments. Louise was truly a routine person and promptly expected her special phone call all at 2:00pm and not a minute later, to eating ice cream with exactly 3 scoops on Saturday's at 3:00PM. She didn't mind letting everyone know she was spoiled.

Mrs. Mary Louise Lynn leaves to cherish her memories: 3 daughters, Shirley Ann Lynn of Flint, Evelyn Hightower of Clarksville, TN and Kim (Joe) Peters of Suwanee, GA; 2 sons, Tyrone (Wanda) Lynn of Auburn Hills, MI and Terrence

Lynn of Flint; special god-daughter, Dr. Kathy Barton-Brown of Flint; 11 grandchildren, Belinda Johnson, Kevin (Carolyn) Doan, David (Shalise) Doan, D'atra Lynn, Tyrone Lynn Jr., Paula (John) Dixon, Latonya Hightower, Alisha (Andre) Williams, Rachel Peery, Jada Peters, Ken Peters, special granddaughters, Karina and Kayla Brown; 25 great-grandchildren; special friend, Dell Hambrick, Loretta Bridge, "Slow" Judy Miller, Virginia Varner, Linda Steele, Billie Pea, Teresa Frelix and Kevin King; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ May happy memories carry you all through this sorrowful time. I will always remember Aunt Louise's beautiful smile and her happy, bubbly personality. We shared much joy with each other when you all would come to Illinois on the holidays. Even tho that was when we were kids it seems like only yesterday. May your happy memories help you find your smile again.. just know I keep you in my thoughts and prayers. May God bless you & strengthen you. Cousin Marcia Simpson Broussard

“ I worked with Miss Louise at the Ymca starting when I was 18 until she retired. We kept in touch for many years then as happens in life we lost touch which saddens me. She was so fun, always laughing and smiling, always full of knowledge and advice. You also knew when you got on her bad side,lol. I will always have such wonderful memories of this lovely lady. My love and prayers go out to her family.

“ My sincerest condolences to the entire Lynn Family. I must say to my BFF Shirley you were an amazing daughter and caregiver. Momma Lynn didn't want for anything, you had her so spoiled and loved. Her smile and loving hugs will truly be missed. Exodus 20:12 Honour they father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord they God giveth thee. You give unselfish love and devotion for many years, and I know you will definitely miss her presence. So RIP mommy Lynn, love you much.
