“ My deepest prayers go out to the family. Mary you always said that you were the first one to carry me home from the hospital when I was born. You always called me yours. You were there the day I married, and you were there the day we buried my dad. I will cherish those memories.

“ To the family: May God be with you in your time of bereavement. She will be missed by all who have crossed her path. I remember meeting cousin Mary in 1989 at our Larkin Family Reunion here. I remember her wearing a flower in her blond-colored hair. I spoke with her once afterwards on the phone, but I never kept in touch since. My mom (Leona Larkin Gates) said she was good cook, too! Also, but I'm not sure, that either my late great-grandfather (Lucian Larkin) or late grandfather (Richard Larkin) and Mary were first cousins. My hope and prayer is that we (meaning my immediate family, the Larkins and Mary's immediate surviving family members) can stay in touch. Unfortunately, a passing of a loved one brings family together, but we have each other right now. I know Mary as well as those who have passed on before her would have wanted it that way. Peace and love, J.G.
