Mrs. McFadden will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, and may be viewed Wednesday, October 5, 2011 from 12-8PM. Mrs. Mary McFadden was born January 13, 1931 in Hope, Arkansas, to the union of Mose and Nettie (Davis) Reynolds. In 1951, she married Melvin McFadden. Six children were born to this union. Upon moving to Flint, Michigan she joined Dozier Memorial CME Church. There she remained a dedicated woman of God serving as Senior Choir President, as a Missionary and as a Stewardess, until her health began to fail. Mary Lee was devoted to her family, first a loving and faithful wife of 53 years to Melvin McFadden, her husband who preceded her in death, and truly as a loving, compassionate and benevolent stay-at-home mother to her children. Mrs. Mary McFadden leaves to cherish her memory: 3 daughters, MiAsia Pasha of Phoenix, AZ, Geraldine (Joseph) Langston and Rosie McFadden (Caregiver); 2 sons, Kelvin (Sonia) and Vincent (Kim) McFadden, all of Flint; 17 grandchildren, Isis and Kenyatta

Turner, JoAnna Langston of Phoenix, AZ, Katina, Monica, Roshanda and Joseph Langston, Jr., Rubyo (Maria), Mario and Shawn Dixon, Monique Green, William Stewart, and Ashley Wilson, Raymond, Alisha, Erica and Terica McFadden, all of Flint, MI; 16 great-grandchildren; 4 sisters-in-law, Occie Credit, Dr. Jessie (Charles) Muldrew, all of Flint, Nina (J.W.) Miller of Grand Blanc, MI, and Eria L. Hopson of Hope, AR; 2 brothers-in-law, Joseph (Charity) McFadden and William (Geraldine) McFadden; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Mrs. McFadden was preceded in death by her son, Melvin Jr.; parents, Mose and Nettie Davis; 4 sisters; 2 brothers; special niece, Queen Ester Mason; special brother-in-law, Adother Muldrew. The family would like to express special thanks to Mr. Mukherjee, Genesys Home Health and Hospice, Aide Cynthia Boyd, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Sis. Barbara Bouknight, Pastor William H. Bell, Jr., Pastor Reynard Monmouth, St. Peter CME and Dozier CME Church Families.
