“ Granny Billie, I am truly going to miss being able to call and you tell me that you are playing cards and will call me back. I have expressed it to you and others how "THANKFUL" I am for you. I have so many memories of time spent on Marengo from skating in the basement, riding the Green Machine down the street.... You have been a mother to me and a Granny to "ERRKA" from the day I moved back home in 1991 till the day I to move to GA in 2000. You beat me to Hurley the day I went into labor. You were there with a listening ear and an encouraging word during a very dark time in my life. You cooked Turnip Greens and Pig Tails every Sunday and we would come eat after church. I could go on and on but I can't seem to stop the tears from falling. To my sister and two brothers thanks for sharing Granny with me. I LOVE YOU

“ I can't recall too many childhood memories that don't include my Granny. From crashing her Oldsmobile, going to card parties, cutting her grass, and walking to the store 30 times a day for a Faygo, my Granny is a treasure! The last time I saw my Granny I took her to the airport and they took her back so fast I didn't get to hug her and tell her bye. For some reason I couldn't stop crying on my way back to the car and all I thought was what if I don't see her again. I called her before I left the airport to let her know I loved her and she was so appreciative for Chris dropping her off and saying to take care of Ava and little Mat and that she loved me too. After a couple of days she called me to let me know she was home and she made sure to tell me I am a good mother and I take very good care of my children and to never stop and that was our last conversation. Granny I love you and I find comfort knowing I have your approval and that you finally have peace.

“ Even i called her Grannie, that was just the name Trevor picked from the time he could talk. She called him Buddha for his little fat tummy. I lived in her home at the time of Trevor's birth and Mary was always there to make sure i didnt get to overwhelmed. I was a new mom with no experience and she would swoop in and help at the very second she saw i was tired or anxious. She was my mother in law for 17 years and she made sure she was present when Trevor graduated from highschool. She couldnt make the out of town college graduation but as with every occasion she always sent him a card with a little money. She is still my son's grannie. She was a kind and caring person and she never forgot to call me on my birthday. Even though i am not around much anymore i did get to see her a couple months ago. She talked warmly about Trev and how she was feeling and it was a very nice visit. I would like to send my most heart felt sympathy to all the family and many friends Mary had. It is a going home celebration really and she most definitely would agree with that. My family, the entire Dye family, especially my mother Hazel would like to express her sadness and hope for love to abide with the family during this most difficult time. My heart is breaking for Shawn, Sandestria, and Kenny but i hope you hold each other tight and lean on each other. There are a lot of people around that can hold you up. Please let them.

“ To the Verges Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one, Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away your love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

Many wonder why we grow old and die. Romans 5:12 answers that question. It say because of Adam sinning his punishment was death and sin and death was passed on to us all. However, our loving God, Jehovah(1John 4:8) made a way out for us all by sacrificing his only son (John 3:16). God promised we would see our love ones again (1John 5:28,29). For more information go to www.jw.org and you can find answers to any question you may have.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
