“ When I think of Aunt MaryAnn, I remember all of the days we spent, as kids, sitting on the porch of her and Uncle Clay's house on Gracelawn, usually on Sunday evenings. We spent a lot of time hanging out with Larry, Jesse, and Sue. We would run around the outside and inside, and she always just smiled. I remember the times her and Uncle Clay would load up their car and visit our family. She never waivered in her love for us. After I moved away from the Flint Area, whenever I would see her, during visits back home, I was always greeted with hug and a smile.

I believe that Aunt MaryAnn, Uncle Clay, Niecy, and my mom are sitting in Heaven, laughing and talking about the good times they had on this earth and my mom telling Neicy that she still is not grown (while Aunt MaryAnn just smiles).

Aunt MaryAnn may your spirit forever soar, freely, high above the clouds.
