Master Jonaries William Holden made his debut into the world on April 27, 2004 at Hurley Medical Center in Flint, Michigan, but he was not alone. Born two minutes after his twin brother, Quinaries, Jonaries had an instant best friend. The twins shared a special bond, and called each other "Yes Yes" instead of their given names. Jonaries was a bundle of energy and enjoyed playing football, wrestling, running, and playing video games. He loved school and excelled in reading and math. Jonaries was a confident little boy who proudly declared to his mother that he wanted to be President of the United States. He was best known for his bright smile, heartfelt hugs and playful spirit. Jonaries was a joy to his entire family. He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Marchand (Nicholas Jenkins) Williams; father, Johnny Holden; 2 brothers, Quinaries Holden and Nicholas Jenkins, Jr.; 2 sisters, Ja'Niya Holden and Jaquirrea Jenkins; grandparents, Wesley and Sherrie Thomas, Johnnie Franklin and Sylvia Holden; great grandparents, William and Mamie Holden, Johnnie Franklin, Girly Franklin and Agres Matthews; aunt, Tuyana (Billy Ford) Williams; uncle, Darrell Holden; great aunts and uncles, Annetta, Barbara, Vivian, Laverne, Glen, Lavaughn, James, Melvin, William Jr., Michael, Calvin, Willetta, Carolyn, Denise and Diane, a host of other relatives and friends including special cousins, Billy, Tyana, Larrion, and Tavion. Special friends Jawan and Teon; godmother, Darilyn Townsend; god brothers, Chuckie, Jordan and Anthony; god sisters, Jordyn and Ra-Sha. Master Holden was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Maurice Daniels; great great-grandparents; cousins, Billy Williams, Brandon Tyler, Dequandra Holden and Brian Chambers; uncles, Gerard Young, Louisa Williams, Baliey Williams and Charles Williams. The family would like to offer a special thanks to Pastor and First Lady Parrish and the Rock Ministries family, Pastor Henry L. and First Lady Fuller, Jr., and the Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church family, Tamica Doxie, Kenyetta Dotson, Ms. Beasley, Ms. Bradley, Ms. D'Keefe and the Dort School family, Anthony, Roland and the McCadden family.

“ There's nothing more to say than just allow God's peace that surpasses all understanding to take complete control of you. I pray that you are able to keep the memories of Jonaries alive and vivid in your memory and see that he's still clearly visible through his brother. Rest assured that the House of Prayer Church is lifting your family in prayer at the very difficult time. Through it all, never lose your faith or trust in God. He will give you the strength you need. Stay encouraged. Pro. 3: 6 "Trust in the Lord with ALL thine heart, and lean not to thine own understanding. But in ALL thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your path."
