Grand Master Jacky King was born February 3, 1953 in Middletown, Ohio, the son of Catherine King and Floyd Mack. He was one of four sons born to Catherine "Cat" King. Jacky moved to Flint, Michigan with his mother, step-father, Earl Richardson and brother, Chris in 1963. He was united in marriage to Dora Blake on December 23, 1987. Grand Master King was preceded in death by his daughter, LaTonya “Pooh” Humphrey; mother, Catherine “Cat” King; fathers, Earl Richardson and Floyd Mack; grandmother, Beatrice “Momma” Knox; grandfather, Huezell Knox; and father-in-law, Bobby M. Blake.

Jacky attended many places of worship and had a deep respect for all faiths and the American Right to Personal Choice.

Jacky attended Mott College and was employed at Grand Blanc Metal Center, a division of General Motors Corporation (GM) and was a member of UAW Local #1292 for 14 years. He often said the best things he received from GM were the friendships with his co-workers. GM is where he met Percy Dunn who introduced him to the Martial Arts. Jacky said it “Saved my life by giving me purpose.” Dora supported his decision to quit GM and pursue karate full time. It was apparent Jacky’s purpose here was not to build cars but instead to build character in our youth.

Jacky began his martial arts training with Robert Anderson, Master Jae Joon Kim and Mr. Morales. Jacky had a 8th Degree Black Belt and received rank throughout the years from United Martial Arts Brotherhood. He founded the non-profit, Youth Karate-Ka Association in 1977 and King Karate in 1987. The purpose to provide martial arts training to at-risk youth. Jacky trained thousands of youth throughout the years developing in them self discipline and self worth. He encouraged their desire to become student champions, family champions and community champions. The creation of the Harvesting Earth Educational Farm in 2008 provided the opportunity to teach his karate students another aspect of self defense, growing and eating local organic food. This urban farm located in the Beecher area received the Small Farmers of the Year Award from the USDA in the 2012.

Jacky and the community planted 200 fruit trees, built 3 green houses to cultivate and harvest to market local organic produce. Jacky received acknowledgement and awards from countless individuals, organizations, foundations and non-profits. To mention a few nearest to his heart, 1. Afro American Athlete of the Year 2. Genesee District Library Community Hero 3. CANUSA Games Pat Patterson Award. He was encouraged by Genesee County Commissioner Raynetta Speed and others to co-found along with Beecher Business Owners, the Greater Beecher Business District Association in 2005. This non-profit continues to uplift the Beecher Community through their deeds and efforts. He served as Mt. Morris Township Trustee after being elected in 2012. He was truly a voice for the people of his community. The other Board Members he had the pleasure to serve with encouraged and supported his efforts in the community. He credited the leadership of Supervisor Larry Green, Clerk Brenda Ashley and Treasurer Pat Haley for many lessons taught to him during his tenure.

Jacky loved to fish for Blue Gill from his kayak. He shared this love with Dora and his grandchildren. They kayaked many lakes and rivers together. Jacky loved to Cross Country Ski with his favorite trails being in Tawas, MI at Corsair. The smell of pine and fresh air along with vigorous exercise were what drew Jacky and Dora to skiing. He enjoyed bike riding on Mackinaw Island and throughout the Beecher Community. He said he got to see his community more closely by bike. Jacky loved to travel, experience new things and meet new people. He met no strangers and would strike up a conversation with everyone he met. Jacky was quick to light up a room with his loving smile and sweet talk but if need be he could twist that face up in defense of justice and liberty. Jacky's great passions were people and community. He dedicated his life uplifting both.

Grand Master King's sayings were, 1. "There are 1440 minutes in a day how are you using your minutes?" 2. "Once you know karate you never walk alone." 3. "Have a dynamic day it's important." 4. "Failure will never overtake me if my determination to succeed is strong enough." Jacky and Dora were blessed to share their home for a few years with granddaughter, Averi N. where she held a special place in his heart. He often called her, "our road dawg!" Jacky loved all his grandchildren and provided every possible opportunity for them to experience adventures in life. He was blessed to meet his first great-grandchild this fall, Titus Brandon Jr.

The family would like to express special thanks to Sherry Richardson, Gwen Shelby, Sabrina Harris, David Blake, Shelley Spivack, Aaron Minner, Danny Helkowski, Shirley Jones, Bryce Harden, Pastor Kelly C. Richards and the Grace Cathedral Community Church family, Father Philip Schmitter and the Christ the King Catholic Church family, Hurley Foundation, Hurley Medical Center Social Workers, doctors and ICU Nursing staff particularly nurses, Moon and Bianca.

It was an honor to be taught by you during my teenage formative years. From the many tournaments to the 1-on-1 sparring, there were life lessons in everything you touched.

Thank you for your intentionality and HUGE heart for the community. You left Flint/Beecher in a much better place than when you found it.

Well done.

I will miss seeing you when I would come Home. I recall one summer in 2006 when Ms. Dora and Master King where riding they motorcycles and stop at Inner City Productions on Ballenger Hwy. They were getting the video footage edited for some instructional learning. I was happy to assist on that project. As a production intern.
