“ My Sweet, I will never forget that little girl I first met in the doorway of your home with the cute lil round face and beautiful smile! We use to have so much fun together as kids! Even though you all were younger than I was and I was supposed to be babysitting! I loved playing with you all! I will never forget your infectious laughter! Rest well my love. Till we meet again. ~ Darlene U.

I'll never forget the day we all decided to take photos together. She will be missed. To the family, I am praying with you all. I hate my family and I cannot attend as they are under the weather. “ My Sincerest and Heartfelt Condolences are To the Siblings of Matrisha Johnson and the Entire Johnson Family at Large.

I Want to Express My Gratitude for Sharing Matrisha with The Collins Family... Thank You!

Matrisha has Been My GodSister Since Early Childhood. My Parents and My Siblings Were Allowed Space in Her Life and World... and Vice Versa.

I Recently had the Opportunity and Pleasure to Host Her When She Came Up to Detroit to Visit My Mother Who Was Visiting Her Sisters.

What A TIME!

GodSis Didn't Show Any Signs of Sadness, Feebleness, or Even Moping Around!

In Fact She Was Just the Opposite.

She Was:

LIVELY

HILARIOUS

LOVING !

We BOTH Had No Idea Those Would Be Our Last IN Person Moments.

What an Essential Being My GodSister Was!

She Loved and I Loved Her! Our Talks as Grownups Was Pivotal and Very Encouraging. MATURE!

I Am Saddened By Her Transition But Happy at Her Legacy and Will to Live on Her Terms!

I'LL MISS YOU GODSISTER! 💔
