“ My mother in law was a tough cookie. Knowing her 47 years and having to pass her tests to see if I was good enough for her son. The 1st time I met her, I had to cook... Cut up 4 chickens, fried corn from the cob, green beans, cornbread and a cake. Who would in these days even try this. She really was 99 but records in Louisville, were kept but family guessed. Grandma Sylvia of Maudie knew her birthday and lived to be 126. I couldn't let her go to a nursing home. She lived 3 yrs and 2 days past the Dr's expectations. Hallelujah Jesus. She touched many generations and raised everyone. God rest her soul.
