“ To the family of Mrs. Lee my thoughts and prayers are with you. Mrs. Lee was part of that village that helped raise me. Her lifestyle exemplified her faith and trust in God. She will definitely be missed on this side of Heaven. She's now in the arm's of the most high and reunited with her baby girl.

“ Mrs. Maxine was the epitome of a prayer warrior. She lived in my neighborhood and she could just sense it that I was in need of prayer, and just like that there was a knock on the door and her saying, I just stop by to pray with you and let you know that all will be well. Praying for the entire family 🙏

“ To the Lee Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*

“ My condolences to the Lee Family, I’m so sorry for your loss. Sister Maxine and I became good friends and prayer partners, from our cell group. When I moved to Texas it didn’t matter, we still talked and prayed for each other. Maxine was a true friend to me like no other. Maxine would say Sister Linda can I pray for you and your family? I’m truly going to miss you Sister Maxine. Lord please give the family strength, peace and be a comforter to them. 🙏🙏🙏 From Linda Fant and my family.
