To Willie and Barbara: We know that this was your first born and, it seems that he has been taken too soon, but who are we to say that he wasn't needed on the other side to assist in that land on the other side where GW and Jessie now tread. His body has passed on but his spirt still wanders on Lebeau and Dewey. he now looks over you and leaves a legacy of love and loved ones. He was a great kid and will always be remembered as such. Hang on too your memories and don't let go! May God bless you and your family at this time:

“ To the Vincent Family -

During this time of difficulty, may you find comfort by considering the finest basis of encouragement, God's Word the Bible. May you find comfort by considering Psalms 146: 5,9 where God shows loving concern for bereaved ones. Additionally, 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 truly shows that Jehovah is "the God of Comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation."

“ I send my condolences and prayers to the Vincent and Wilbanks families, during this difficult time. It was painful hearing the news, wishing it wasn't true. But I know, God doesn't make any mistakes. Another angel was needed to make the ones who already transitioned to heaven laugh and he called your name. I miss my homeboy Mike V and I'll never forget all the times we shared together, throughout our lifetime.

“ To the family of Michael Vincent, please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Even though I was not personally acquainted with Michael, I have experienced the agonizing pain that comes with losing someone so young and full of life. The comfort and encouraging words from others helped me through this dark times. The greatest comfort came from God's Word. At 1 Cor 15:26 death is rightly called an enemy. The only one who could remove this enemy is God himself and he promises to do so. (John 5:28,29). Please allow the memories of Michael and the wonderful promise that God gives of seeing him again strengthen you until that time. For more encouraging thoughts please visit www.jw.org
