She was the granddaughter of Edward O. and Mildred (Peletier) Ross. Mildred was a resident of Flint, Michigan and Southwestern High School Alumnus. She visited churches and although she never found a church home, she maintained her relationship with God on her own. was at the Bingo Hall; (3) Casino, she didn't often go, but won when she did; and (4) taking care of her 3 dogs; Oreo, Zoe and Snowflake. "Millie" had a life of servitude to others, which is the most cherished lifestyle in the eyes of God, and devoted nearly all of her time to caring for others, including providing homecare to her dad. "Millie's" spirit of love, caring and caregiving extended wide, she was always willing to help if you asked. In addition, she was tirelessly selfless-never asking for much and contented with what she had.
