Mrs. Millie Lee (Coleman) Watkins was born February 8, 1927 in Jonesboro, Arkansas, the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Cottie and Emma J. Coleman. She attended school in Benton, AR. In October of 1942, she married Mosie Lee Watkins. Millie was blessed to birth 4 children, 3 girls, Mozella E., Janice M., Cynthia M. and 1 boy, Mosie Lee Jr. Millie resided in Flint, Michigan on Howard Ave. for over 60 years. When she was able, she attended Christ Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. Alfred L.C. Robbs and Dr. Leroy Shelton until their transitions. Millie was a Domestic Engineer. She raised her 4 children plus 2, Celeste C. and Ronzeld T. and engineered them to become successful adults. After the passing of her husband in August of 2000, she stepped right into being the Matriarch of the family. Millie loved her grandchildren and always did her best by them. She was an excellent cook, launderer and great home Beautician, and quite the fashionista in her younger day. Millie always told you the truth even when you didn't want to hear it!
