“ Milton and I went to the Million Man March, we created television together, from Church shows to night club entertainment often times until the wee hours of the morning.

We even attended a Public Access Convention one year. I remember at the Million Man March Milton was so excited, sandwiched between NBC and BET.

He wanted to get in front of the camera for the very first time (I think). Well after he forgot his name and where we were, he/we decided he'd get back behind the camera.

However, what I liked the most about Milton is he taught me “You don't have to be happy about the man you were, but you need to be proud of the man that you are.”

Bro Milton hats off! You will be missed. Hazel and family much love... The Herrings

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is something that we can never get use to. In my times of sorrow I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.

“ I worked with Mr Mayes for many years on the Title One Milton Mayes Scholarship Commitee. When I heard he was hospitalized my husband and I visited him from the 7th floor to the 4th floor back to the 7th floor. We stop by on Tuesday thinking he had been transfered again that's when we were told. He has moved to a new home over in glory. Thank you Mayes family for sharing him we us. Be not dismayed whatever betide God will take care of you Mrs Mayes, Daughter and entire family. Our prayers are with you

“ Our condolences go out to you and your family. We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Often during these difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ Cousins,

I am grateful for all the memories of my Uncle when he would come to MS and visit Big Mama when she was alive and tell us to clean up the room for him before he was ready to leave and have all kinds of change around the room for us to find. Take care Uncle Milton, you shall be missed.

“ Dear Mayes Family,

Be encouraged to know when God takes one, He wakes one.

2 Corinthians 5:6-8 So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

*Prayerfully,

“ We mourn with you, we've all lost a Great Friend. I worked with Bro. Mayes on our T.V.Program,"The Word Made Alive", and several other church and community activities.We could always count on him to assist us in anyway that was needed. He taught me all that I know about T.V.Cameras.I pray that the entire family will feel his present with the memories that he left behind, and be assured of GOD'S strength, peace, comfort, and love.He will see you thru."
