“ I spoke to my Uncle Milton last week. I had no idea that would be the last time I'd talk to him. He was experiencing his own health but he was concerned how I was doing here in New York city. I assured him I was fine here. We spoke briefly and I told I'd see him this summer. I remember his midnight blue classic Grand Prix he drove when I was a kid. He was hard working caring person and will be missed. God Bless my family thru this difficult time. Uncle Milton is gone but not forgotten, may he rest in peace
