“ Mother Minnie was the sweetest person you ever wanted to meet. She would call me to ask, Renee how you make this or how you make that. She would never tell me how something turned out. She wanted me to know where she was going too. Now Renee I'll be going down on Black St if you call the house. She told me one day, you know all my friends are gone Renee. I'm going to Miss her calls and her sweet spirit. Take your rest Minnie, your work is done down here. Love you, Sis Irene Fouse
