Mr. Mires Williams Jr. was born November 15, 1955 in Nitta Yuma, MS. The son of Mires Sr. and Luella Williams. Mr. Williams was raised in Flint, Michigan and attended Northwestern High School. After which he relocated to Indianapolis, IN where he spent the duration of his adult life before returning to Flint in October of 2016. Mires or "Flint Jr." to his family was known by all who knew him for his passion for cars, motorcycles and Trucks. He loved working on them as much as he did riding and driving them, being a mechanic was much more than a career to him, it was a special hobby that brought him the greatest pleasure over the years. Mires also worked for Western Electric and the City of Indianapolis sanitation department for years prior to being employed at the Lyn's Auto Shop for many years. Mr. Williams was very family oriented. He loved spending time with family and friends, with his baby face, silly grin, crazy laugh and funny jokes, he would keep everyone laughing, that was his gift which we will all miss. His favorite phrase was "Peace and Love".

Mr. Mires Williams Jr. leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Starlette Williams of Indianapolis, IN; 3 sons, Cedric George, Demetrius George and David George, all of Indianapolis, IN; 2 grand-daughters, Makenzie and Makala Jordan, both of Indianapolis, IN; 5 sisters, Betty Williams-Johnson, Wanda Hawkins, both of Flint, Estella Hudson of Sacramento, CA, Wanda Coleman, Ronetta Green, Pamela (Donnie) Williams, all of Indianapolis, IN; 4 brothers, Eddie (Annette) Williams, Tommy Williams, both of Flint, Anthony (Melissa) Williams and Danny Williams, both of Indianapolis, IN.; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends; 5 aunts, Adeline Castleberry, Ann (Aaron) Flood, and Mazie Williams, all of Flint, Dora Morris and Cora Stamps, both of Nitta Yuma, Ms.; sister-in-law Bonnie Darlene (Rickie) Wilburn; brother-in-law, Randy (Randy) Harrison.

Mr. Williams was preceded in death by: mother, Luella Williams, father, Mires Williams Sr., twin sister, Dora Williams, sister, Linda Williams, brother, Herman Williams, Grandparents, Willie Williams, Roosevelt and Luella Hudson and Robert and Lucille Bryant.
