“ Delmas and I were deeply saddened when we heard about Sister Clarke. She was truly a remarkable "Lady". I always enjoyed our conversations and the many pleasant memories of this gifted, talented loving, and highly favored woman of God. With three sons as Ministers of the Gospel and all her children and grandchildren serving her God. Delmas and I are keeping you and your family in our prayers. "I'll not fail thee", is a promise of our God. May this thought bring a peace and comfort in the loss of one you love.

“ To the Clarke Family,

What can I say when you've been touched by an Angel on several occasions. Sis Clarke was a woman of stature, humbleness, and inner beauty, but most important was her strong dedication and commitment to Jesus Christ. Word cannot begin to express how she will be surely missed, especially on Sunday mornings behind me. One thing for sure, I know without a doubt Sis Clarke is sitting in heaven, possibly discussing one of her most gifted hobbies "A seamstress".

As I think, we someday will have to take this journey in Glory, she was truly loved by her children, grandchildren, sisters, in laws, & church family.

Prayers & Blessing are bestowed upon your family.
