“ My sincere and heartfelt condolences to all my cousins and their families in the loss of your father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. I will always have fond memories of Morris, when he lived in Kentucky after marrying my cousin Cyndola, and lived in the holler by the creek. Those were some fun and good family times in the country. May you find comfort in all your cherished memories, and may God give you peace, strength, and hope as you say goodbye to him, and in the coming days ahead. Sending my love to you all! ”
