“ Thank you so much Granddaddy for your words of encouragement and support throughout the years. Thanks for being a father figure to me and my siblings as well loss our father many years ago. Thanks for helping me learn how to drive and being present at the many special occasions in my life (e.g. graduating from college, getting married, walking me down the aisle of my marriage, gender reveal, and being present to see your great-grandson, etc.). You will be dearly missed, however, the memories I have of you will forever be cherish in my heart.
