Obituary

Gertrude Margaret Campbell, the First Lady/Mother of New Life Missionary Baptist Church in Flint, Michigan transitioned from time to eternity at her home on Saturday, May 25, 2019. Affectionately known as Red, she was the youngest of 10 children born to Cornelius and Gertrude Tucker on May 23, 1943 in Crawford, Mississippi. She confessed her faith in Christ at an early age at the Charity Baptist Church and has since been a diligent servant of Christ.

After graduating high school, Red began pursuing her dream to become a fashion model. However, after meeting her soulmate – she moved to Flint, MI and was united in holy matrimony to Wilbert Campbell in 1964. From that union came two sons.

Throughout her life, she worked several jobs most notable was her 21 years at Consolidated Packaging. But her best work was always performed at the house. Whether it was the house of God or the house she called home - Gertrude took pride in her service. From her attire to her attitude, from her sweet demeanor to giggly disposition, from her tireless work ethic to her final presentation – Gertrude honored God with service and her family she honored with love. God was her first love with Rev. and the boys running a close second.

Gertrude was preceded in death by her parents, Cornelius and Gertrude Tucker; 4 brothers, Cornelius Jr., James, John and J.P. Tucker; sister, Minnie Atkinson; father and mother in-law, Will and Mossie Campbell; 5 sisters in-law, Lucy Tucker, Hattie Tucker, Ida Jean Simpson, Mae Campbell, and Venita Campbell; 8 brothers-in-law, N.S. Bland, Tommie Malone, Leroy, Robert, Melvin, Auprey, Lewis and Andrew Campbell.

Treasuring her memory is her loving husband, Wilbert Campbell; 2 sons, Jeffrey (Pamela) Campbell of Pflugerville, TX and Stephan (Keri) Campbell of Bellefontaine, OH; 4 grandchildren, Alecia and Myles of Texas, Jaeden and Ava of Ohio; brother, LeeGree (Gladys) Tucker of Flint; 3 sisters, Bethene Jones of St. Louis, MO, LueVerne Bland of Columbus, MS, and Annie Malone of Flint; sister-in-law, Shirley Napoleon of El Dorado, AR; god-daughter, Angie Beck of Flint; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To Pastor Campbell and family: Lady Campbell, my long time friend and big sister, will truly be missed. My family and I, send our deepest love and sympathy at this time.

As I reflect back on the church fellowships and dinners, we shared when Reverend Davis, was Pastoring. And our last gathering, it is so memorable, when we all were at the facility with her. That was a joyful day as she sang with us, and we prayed for her. May God strengthen and be with you, your family and church family for the days, months and years to come. Knowing that, Earth's loss is Heavens gain. An angel has went home to be with our Lord. Be Blessed. From all of us:
Dr. Carolyn D. Davis and Children.
