“ I will remember my Grandmother being the most giving; smartest, loving person, and would always be willing to help others. My Grandmother helped raise me and my siblings, and taught me to believe in myself and trust in my abilities; and for that I will always love her for pouring into my life the way that she did. Granny will truly be missed, but her spirit will live on in all the people lives that she has touch.

“ I will dearly miss "grandma". It's been some time since I spoke to her but she will be always in my childhood memories. I will not forget her home, her cooking, her spunk and when she would dress up for church, she was the sharpest woman on the block. I loved the way she would call me Tabbie even the last time I spoke with her she said "Hey Tabbie". To the family, you all are in my prayers and I love you.

“ Mother Landers was loved by many and gave much love in return. We had a lot of good times in that kitchen cooking and laughing and eating.

“ *This world has its seasons of sadness, its partings and tearful good-byes. But someday there'll be gladness when the Lord whips all tears from our eyes. There'll be an all-out celebration one day when our time here is through, and our loved ones will say with elation, Welcome Home, I've been waiting for you. Sister Barbara Sykes and family we are praying your strength. The Lord will comfort and keep you. You can be assured of His Love. The New Jerusalem FGBC Family.. Elder Patrick W. “ Michelle and Kevin, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Mrs. Landers. Your family has always been so kind and genuine, it started with the patriarch and the matriarch, Mr. and Mrs. Landers. Although, the pain will never leave, I pray that God gives your family the strength to endure this terrible time. Please know that Jehovah God promises us the hope of the resurrection as stated at Rev. 21: 3,4. This is something that you can look forward to, so you can see your Grandfather and Grandmother again. If you know of any Jehovah's Witnesses, please reach out to them, so you can learn what is required of you to be there when Mr. and Mrs. Landers wake up. Also, keep in mind, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Love, Yvonne Johnson Strickland
