“ My sincere condolences to the entire Mixon/Conway families. Mother Mixon was one special lady. I will cherish the fond memories of her from my youth, growing up in First Trinity. I last saw Mother Mixon at the viewing of my granny in December, 2008. To the family, visit and share often the fond memories you have of your loved one(s).

“ Mother Mixon, I thank God for the honor He gave me in knowing you!

I shall always remember our stay,(you, Helen and I)in California many years ago, during the National Baptist Convention. When she would reprimand Helen, she got me too. I bonded with her than, for she reminded of my mother, and she will always be "My Mother Mixon." Whenever I see or think of a chocolate cake, I think of her, she really hated it. I always enjoyed just talking to her, listening to whatever she had to say. She reprimanded me again about three weeks ago as I tried to fix her coat in church. She let me know "she fixed her coat the way she wanted it and if she fell could I pick her up?" Then we laughed so hard as I humbly answered, "no ma'am." Mother you fought a good fight, determined to make it to God's House and just as you told me, "as long as the Lord let you you were going to keep moving." You fought a good fight and now God has healed your body by taking you home, enjoy your heavenly rest. To My "other sisters," I pray to God my children will be as caring, patient and dedicated as you were to Mother. I love you too!

“ To my cousins, you know what aunt Pecolia meant to me. she was a part of the village that raised me. Back then we not only had our parents we had our parents sisters and brothers that we had the utmost respect for. I loved aunt Pecolia so with that I ask that you forgive me for not being there. Necole still talks about when she whiped her and Reese with her cane when Jonah told that they were fighting. She said instead of fighting each other they should be protecting one another. She had an impact on all the lives that she touched. Our prays are with you all.
