“ *Kathy and Family,
We were so sad to hear of Sis. Prices homegoing. But we know God makes no mistakes, and now there's no more pain just Happiness, Joy and Laughter. I can hear her singing, "My soul looks back and wonder how I made it over, just Howdy Howdy and never good-byes!! Weeping may endure for a night but surely JOY will come in the morning. Keep looking up, knowing that the Lord will see you through this most difficult time in your life. We have been where you are, and we KNOW only time and the good Lord will heal your broken hearts. May God forever bless you and keep you. The Moores*

“ *I loved Sister Price.
She was a mother/grandmother all in one to me.
Loved her hugs and kisses.
I will miss her very much.*

“ To The Family,

As my Dad and my sisters talked of Sis Price, we all mentioned how she was always there for our family. Though she was Gala's Godmother, she always made sure if there was a need, she had an outreached hand. Personally, I can remember her helping out with selling our girl scout cookies to people in Chevy Truck and Bus. Daddy would not want to take the cookie sheet to work and we would say, "just give it to Sis Price" and we would have so many orders. Of course, Daddy had to take the cookies to the plant but she would help get them delivered. I remember when I needed some help with learning how to be a cashier so I could get a job. Her and Bro. Fordyce let me work on Saturdays in the Fish Market as a cashier to gain the experience in how to run a register and count back change. Because of their generosity, I landed a job as a cashier at McDonalds and one month later a better job at Sears. To this day, I can count back change. I will miss her dearly but I know that God took her to a better place, where her rewards are endless. She has influenced many generations and her influence will be felt for decades to come. Thank you Sis Price for not only speaking the words but living the life that exemplified the works of Christ. To Kathy, Sherry, Tracey, and Gala, Sis Price has left a legacy that is rich in reward. Live the life and you will see her in heaven.

“ My heart is heavy with sadness of the transition of a great woman of GOD. She was willing to help any needed person, no matter what the need was. To. Evang. Tracey and the entire family, be assured of God's Love, He will give you strength, His Love, and Compassion will comfort you like no one else can. Heaven is rejoicing because another Angel has arrived to her everlasting home." A life well Lived and a life well Loved." I thank God for the time we shared, gone but not forgotten..Mother Margaret Montgomery.
