“ I'm still in shock, in love, and confused about a lot of things that went on in our lives, but I know she is in a much better place now and she is at peace from all the stresses of the world. I was gonna ask her to marry me on her birthday so this is really hard for me, but I will persevere thru this tragedy. I have been honored to have been apart of her life and thank her for blessing me with her presence and I pray that I will see her again one day in heaven. God bless you Georgetta Rena Burnett, I truly loved you my dear. R.I.H

“ Sending my heartfelt prayers and deepest condolences to Jet's children and siblings, as I am also a sibling. This loss is incredibly difficult to process, especially since it happened so suddenly. The last time I saw you was at our grandfather's funeral with your twins. I am grateful that God blessed you to see your children grow into adulthood. Rest peacefully, Jet!

“ When I got the call today, a reel when through my mind. I'm your older sister & I remember when our mother brought you home. When I used to change your diapers, taught you how to walk. So many memories. And although I am 8 years older than you, I moved out while you where still in school. No matter if we didn't speak, I still wanted the best for you & loved you! This hurts because no matter what, you are still my little sister & I love you! ❤️
