“ So very sad to hear of the passing of Tasha. My first thought was of her as a little girl, always smiling. And everytime that I saw her over the years, her smile was always the same smile. Deepest condolences to Lou and the entire Marzette family and most heartfelt prayers. She will definitely be missed. Love y'all.

“ I was lucky to work with Natasha years ago, and I missed her when I left. She was a lovely person who loved her family dearly. I was deeply saddened to hear of her passing. I wish her family and friends comfort in each other during this time of loss and joy in the memories of her life. Carole Polter, Jenison, Michigan.
