“ Myra's beauty was like a rainbow with many colored rays of sunshine after a warm day's rain. I'm truly going to miss working with her in 3 different houses, especially the Golden Circle. I can remember participating in her induction in 2 of the 3 houses. I thank the Good Lord when he stopped me and said call Myra now. You know how you put things off while you're busy, but I am truly blessed to have talked and laugh with her and Hardy 3 hours before her transition. There will be heartache, pain and tears, but joy comes in the morning. We were all truly blessed to know such a wonderful person. Rest in peace my faithful sister and reap your harvest of rewards in heaven!

“ To the Hodges/Wafford Families:

I was shocked and saddened to read of Myra's passing. I remember her so well from our early early days of growing up at Twelfth Street Church of God. I would see her occasionally when she worked at Meijers and she always had the same sweet disposition. My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to all of you and may you find comfort in the word of God.

"Now (may)our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish you in every good word and work." “ 2 Corinthians 1:3-5 (NLT) All praise to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. He is the source of every mercy and the God who comforts us. [4] He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When others are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us. [5] You can be sure that the more we suffer for Christ, the more God will shower us with his comfort through Christ.

Please know that you are not alone during this time. Comfort is yours. Joy is an option. And it has all been made possible by your Saviour. He went without comfort so you might have it. He postponed joy so you might share in it. He willingly chose isolation so you might never be alone in your hurt and sorrow.

God Bless You.

“ As you remember your loved one. In the brightest of moonbeams...in the rustling leaves of trees...in blooming of flowers...in the sweetest kind of dreams...her love lives on in the most beautiful places you can imagine. She leaves a rich legacy. Her love is evident in the many ways she shaped your life and made you who you are. Through you, because of you, her light continues to shine. With sympathy.
