and Tobias Mayers. Clyde raised them as his sons. She loved spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She enjoyed holidays and making sure that the little ones had something on those special days.

Mrs. Myra Mayers-Brown leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Clyde Brown; 4 children, Robert Mayers, Tobias (Christina) Mayers, Clyde Mayers and Tiffany Mayers, all of Flint; 7 grandchildren, Shambria Mayers, William Mayers, Gabrielle Mayers, Myaisha Jordan, Amari McClain, Teonna McClain and Breona McClain; great-granddaughter, Samiyah Mayers; mother, Mary Lee Mayers; 2 sisters, Lillie Mayers-Allen of Dolton, IL and Emma Scott of Carbondale, IL; brother, Willie C. “ I am very sorry for your loss but, this comforting scripture found at Isaiah 26:19 says: "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life. So in this scripture we see that Jehovah God will bring the dead back to life. You are also welcome to view the comforting publications at www.jw.org.

“ Dear Family and Friends: I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. It is very hard to lose a cherished loved one. Thankfully, we can turn to "The Most High God" Jehovah who is the "Hearer of Prayer" and a tremendous source of comfort in times of grief and distress (Psalm 46:1). Please be assured that soon death will be "swallowed up forever and tears wiped from all faces" (Isaiah 25:8). And we will have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones who have passed away right here on the earth, as promised at John 5:28,29. This is Almighty God's encouragement to you, the family and friends. He always keeps his promises (Titus 1:2). Please visit the website: JW.org for more of the Bible's satisfying answers to many other questions.

“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he puts his arms around you and whispered "come to me." With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted Matthew 5:4

Peace, prayers and blessings to the entire Mayers & Brown families and friends.
