“ With our heads bowed, The Redmond Family of California send our heartfelt sympathies on the passing of Mom Myrt. Although her presence will be missed she will live forever in our minds, hearts and voices because we know that we were some of the many who were beneficiaries of her blessings and love.

“ I was so shocked when I received the call that Ms. Pea had passed. My twin (as we referred to each other because of our birthday) is gone but she will never be forgotten. Though I will truly miss my walk on the 2nd floor and seeing her and her friend palying cards from 10:30 - 3:30 daily except when she went to Mott to get dolled up. It was a given Pea was playing cards. We put a sign on your chair Ms. Pea. You were a beautiful person. Peace

“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of Mrs. Pea. I too have experienced the loss of loved ones and with comfort from Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) and the bible we can find the strength to make it through the difficult days to come. Jehovah never intended for us to suffer and die and soon his kingdom (Matthew 6:10) will bring an end to these things. The bible also tells us at Isaiah 25:8, "he will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces". Another encouraging scripture is found in John 5:28, Jesus said, "do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". I hope these words will comfort you in your time of bereavement and please visit JW.ORG for more comforting information.
