“ I send my condolences out to the Hinson family, I known Nate every since I was like 5 years old with him coming down to my aunt Fannie's house laughing and cracking jokes sharing great stories at the round table and as we grew older I was still around. Nate was like a brother to me, I'll miss ya bro.

“ My prayers go out to the Hinson family in this time of grieving. I remember the very first time Nate and Daryl recorded a song with me on Jennings Rd. That was the start of Nate's never ending need to write songs. He would always ask to come over and do a song to my tracks. And when that happened I knew he was a talent that was bound for greatness. I still listen to over 40 songs we did together (pulling the tape's out the box too). I also remember Nate on Ruth Street at my aunt Fannie's house spending time with our family playing cards, telling jokes and sharing stories. He was like a brother to us. He will not be forgotten. We all know that he's one of them Stars.

Love,
