Ms. Nakeisha Renae Jenkins, affectionately known as, “Keisha” or “Ms. Rampage” was born March 25, 1982 in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of Lorraine Caldwell and Dennis Cade. Nakeisha attended Flint Community Schools including Flint Northern High School. “Keisha” found the Lord at an early age, and loved visiting many church's in the area. She regularly attended House of Prayer M.B.C., until her health failed.

“Keisha” was a member of Boogie Down Motorcycle Club of Flint. She enjoyed singing, listening to music, cooking and traveling with the motorcycle club. Keisha was full of love and laughter, and was the family peace keeper. She was always concerned how others were doing.

Ms. Nakeisha Renae Jenkins leaves to cherish her memory: fiancé and love of her life, Terrell Andrews; mother and loving step-father, Lorraine (Joe) Caldwell, 3 sisters, Cherika Jenkins, Bianca Smith and Symone Hamilton; 2 nieces, Amiya Collins and Kaliyah Thornton; 2 uncles, 3 aunts; a host of other relatives and friends, too numerous to mention, including special friends from the motorcycle club community.

Ms. Jenkins was preceded in death by: her grandmother, Ethel Lee Kye. The family would like to express their heartfelt thanks to: Norman Turner, Heart to Heart Hospice, Patrick, Ms. Joanne, Dr. Almaroof, the entire staff at Reliant Renal Care Dialysis Center, Pastor Kenneth Stewart of House of Prayer M.B.C., Amber and Ms. Andrews. Thank you all for all your care and kindness. Keisha loved everyone.

*To my Boogie sister I love you and always will. You fought a good fight, but God needed you more. He reached down on earth and picked a beautiful rose from his garden to take you and plant you at your new home. Love you.
